Recognition of associations

Serial
No.

X

At the recent elections held on 12-3-1927, 204 members representing the rural and urban constituencies of the Rep^{ve} Ass^{y} have been returned.

In regard to the 15 seats representing special interests separate action will be taken. As regards the 35 seats for the representation of minorities on the Rep^{ve} Ass^{y} 25 are to be filled up by persons elected by recognised associations and 10 by nomination. From the results of the recent elections it will be seen that 10 Mahomedans and ~~on~~ 1 member of the Depressed classes have been returned ~~to~~ as members of the R-A.

Five members have to be elected by the Mahomedan associations to make up the guaranteed number of 15; similarly 5 members have to be elected by the Christian associations, and 2 by the associations representing the depressed classes. Thus after deducting the 12 members to be elected by the associations of the three communities referred to 23 members have to be allotted to the minority communities.

So far 27 associations have applied for recognition for returning members to the Rep^{ve} Ass^{y}, and the list put up shows the names and other particulars of the several associations that have applied.

I have made some changes re Jains, which will greatly ease their case. This will not amount to subsect recognition as I am told that ~~the~~ two of the Assns contain both sects — but the result is likely to give general satisfn.

Re depressed classes the 3 Assns each had a vote last time; & it seems best to give a vote to the Ramadasas & Dravidas sepy.

Under Section 3, clause (3) of the Mysore Representative Assembly Regulation, XVIII of 1923, not less than thirty-five members of the Representative Assembly shall be representatives of minorities, and under paragraph 1 of the Rules contained in Notification No. P. 2395—Legis. 12-23-2, dated 7th November 1923, the Government have fixed the number of representatives of minorities at 35 of whom 25 are to be returned by election by associations recognised for the purpose and 10 are to be nominated by Government for the purpose of removing inequalities, if any, of representation. In their proceedings No. Rel. 1065-74—R. A. 48-26, dated 12th April 1927, Government have granted for the representation of Mahomedans five seats, Indian Christians five seats, and Depressed Classes two seats, as these distinct groups have failed to secure through the rural and urban constituencies the minimum number of seats guaranteed to them in Notification No. P. 2396—Legis. 12-23-3, dated the 7th November 1923. There will thus remain twenty-three seats to make up the total number of thirty-five seats reserved for the representation of minorities and these seats have to be filled up by election through associations recognised by Government or by nomination.

2. Government have now granted recognition to the following Associations who had applied for such recognition in accordance with the rules prescribed for the purpose:—

15,000 (1) Bhavasara Kshatria Sangha, representing Darjis, to elect one member;
63,000 (2) Padmasala Sangha, representing a sub-sect of Neygis, to elect one member;
3,99,000 (3) Kurubara Sangha, representing Kurubars, to elect two members;
— (4) Rajput Upakarini Provincial Mahasabha and Kshatriya Prantika Sabha of Mysore, representing the Rajput community to be grouped together to form one electorate, to elect one member;
1,34,000 (5) Balija Sangha, representing Banajiga community, to elect one member;
1,55,000 (6) Yadava Sangham, representing Gollars, to elect one member;
74,000 (7) Mysore Vanhikula Kshatriya Sangha of Bangalore, and Agni Vamsa Kshatriya Sangha of Tumkur, representing the Tigalar community to be grouped together to form one electorate, to elect one member;
53,000 (8) Mahratta Samaj, representing Mahrattas, to elect one member;
42,000 (9) Jyotinagarada Vaisya Maha Jana Sangha, representing Ganigar community, to elect one member;
— (10) Kaniyar Sangham, representing Kaniyars, to elect one member;
1,50,000 (11) Parivara Sangha, representing Besthars, to elect one member;

3. The Associations that have now been recognised by Government, except the associations grouped under (4) and (7), and which are granted the privilege of returning members to the Assembly in paragraph 2 above, will now take immediate steps to elect their representatives according to rules laid down in Notification No. P. 3920—Legis. 12-23-18, dated the 15th January 1924 and will report the names of the representatives so elected, to Government on or before the 25th April 1927.

The Rajput Upakarini Mahasabha and the Kshatriya Prantika Sabha, as well as the Vanhikula Kshatriya Sangha and the Agnivamsa Kshatriya Sangha, will send their voters' lists to the Special Officer for Elections, forthwith.

The distribution of seats for the representation of minority interests now made will still provide for eleven seats to make up the total number of thirty-five reserved by Government for such representation, and orders regarding these eleven seats will issue separately.
